

The Modern Greek Studies Association

The Modern Greek Studies Association is a non-profit organization of scholars, students, and philhellenes founded in 1968 to promote the study of modern Greece. MGSA sponsors symposia and seminars devoted to a variety of topics: language, literature, history, the social sciences, education, and the fine arts. The Association also issues and supports publications and serves as an information center on programs and activities relating to Byzantine and Modern Greek studies.

The Center for Mediterranean Studies

The Center for Mediterranean Studies was established in 1972 as a non-profit institution. The purpose of the Center is to encourage and coordinate scholarly and interdisciplinary research, particularly comparative studies of the Mediterranean area. The Center's location at The American University in Washington, D.C. makes it an important forum for the exchange of views among representatives of the academic world, the government, and the media. CMS operates five country seminars, including a Greek seminar.

Symposium '78

Program Committee

Co-chairmen: Anne Farmakides, McGill University;

A. A. Fatouros, Indiana University at Bloomington

Committee: Peter Allen, Theodore A. Couloumbis,

Nikiforos P. Diamandouros, John O. Iatrides, Edmund Keeley, Lily Macrakis, Lelia Washburn

Local Arrangements Committee

Co-chairmen: Theodore A. Couloumbis, The American University; Sallie M. Hicks, The American University

Committee: Eloise Forgette, Candee Harris, Roxanne Kariotis, Anna Lea, Susan Loutzker, Ernest Plock, Rena Stavrou, Lelia Washburn

The local committee would like to thank the staff of the Press and Information Office, Greek Embassy, Washington, D.C. for their cooperation.

Design by Todd Lewis, The American University

GREECE IN THE 1940s

Symposium '78

presented by
The Modern Greek Studies Association
in cooperation with
The Center for Mediterranean Studies

November 9-12, 1978
Ward Circle Building
The American University
Washington, D.C. 20016

Thursday, November 9

6:30 p.m. Registration

Ward Circle
Building

8:00 p.m. Opening Session

Ward I Chair: Lily Macrakis, Regis College, President
MGSA

Nicos Svoronos, Ecole Pratique des Hautes Études
Greece 1940-50: Meaning and Problématique

C. M. Woodhouse,
EAM and the British Connection

Friday, November 10

9:30 a.m. Greetings

Ward I

10:00 a.m. Occupation and Resistance

Ward I Chair: Theodore A. Coulombis, The American University

Hagen Fleischer, Free University, Berlin
Contacts Between German Occupation Authorities and Major Greek Resistance Organizations: Sound Tactics or Collaboration?

John Petropoulos, Amherst College
The Traditional Political Parties During the Occupation

John Hondros, The College of Wooster
The Greek Resistance, 1941-45: A Reevaluation

10:00 a.m. Literature: Poetry

Ward II Chair: Thanassis Maskaleris, San Francisco
State University

Andonis Dekavalles, Fairleigh-Dickinson University
From Enthusiasm to Anguish

Edmund Keeley, Princeton University
The Late Tragic Vision of Angelos Sikelianos

Kostas Myrsiades, West Chester State College
Greek Resistance Poetry: Its Theory and Practice

2:30 p.m. The Resistance and the Allies

Ward I Chair: John O. Iatrides, Southern Connecticut State College

Richard Clogg, King's College, London
The Special Operations Executive in Greece

Costa G. Couvaras
The O.S.S. in Greece

Procopis Papastratis
The Papandreou Government and the Lebanon
Conference

2:30 p.m. Social and Political Change

Ward II Chair: Peter Allen, Rhode Island College

D. Argyriades, New York University
Public Administration in the Mountains of 'Free
Greece'

Steven Bowman, Hebrew University
Jews in War-Time Greece

Stavros B. Thomadakis, Baruch College
Black Markets, Inflation and Force: The Social
Character of Wealth Transfers in the Occupation
Economy of Greece

Costas Vergopoulos, Université de Paris, Vincennes
Social Alliances in Greece, 1944-52

8:00 p.m. Work in Progress: History and Social Science

Ward II Chair: Harry Psomiades, Queens College

Stephan A. Christides, M.D., University of Pennsylvania Memoirs of a General Surgeon in the Mountains of Epirus, EDES 1943-44

A. A. Fatouros, Indiana University at Bloomington
Formal and Informal Structures of U.S. Penetration

Chris Kanolis
The Hammer and the Anvil: Repression and Defiance in the Countryside

Theodore C. Kariotis, George Mason University
American Economic Penetration of Greece in the Late Forties

George J. Lekas
Memoirs of Resistance in the Cities

Basil Reppas, University of Northern Iowa
The Greek Children Question

Nina Simpkins, Harvard University
Women in the Resistance

8:00 p.m. From Liberation to Civil War
Ward I Chair: Harry Cliadakis, University of South Carolina

Lars Baerentzen, University of Copenhagen
The Liberation of the Peloponnese, September 1944
George Alexander, King's College, London
The Demobilization Crisis: September-November 1944
George Mavrogordatos, Berkeley University
From Ballots to Bullets: The 1946 Elections and Plebiscite

Saturday, November 11

9:30 a.m. The Civil War
Ward I Chair: William H. McNeill, University of Chicago

John O. Iatrides, Southern Connecticut State College
Aspects of the Civil War
N. Alivizatos
The 'Emergency' Regime and Civil Liberties 1947-50
Constantine Tsoucalas, Université de Paris, Vincennes
Ideological Aspects of the Civil War

9:30 a.m. Work in Progress: Literature
Ward II Chair: Anne Farmakides, McGill University

John P. Anton, Emory University
Hymn to the Struggle for Freedom: An Introduction
Valerie A. Caires, Ohio State University
The Critical Response to Greek Literature Published During the Occupation
George Giannaris, Deree-Pierce College
Greek Theatre Under the Occupation
James Lea, University of Southern Mississippi
Kazantzakis' Politics: The Third Stage
Julia Loomis
The Politics of Publishing
Linda Suny Myrsiades, Widener College
Politics and Resistance in Karaghiozis

Registration Form

GREECE IN THE 1940s

Symposium 1978
November 9-12, 1978

Name _____
Address _____

Registration Fees:

$15	MGSA member
$25	Couples (MGSA)
$25	Non-MGSA participant
$35	Couples (non-MGSA)
$10	Student

Make all checks or money orders payable to "MGSA Symposium '78" and return with registration form by OCTOBER 30 to MGSA, Box 337 Harvard Sq. Branch, Cambridge, MA 02138.

Those pre-registered will pick up their complete symposium packet at a separate desk at the time of the symposium. Late registration will begin on Thursday, November 9 at 6:30 p.m. at the Ward Circle Building of The American University, Washington, D.C. 20016.

You may concurrently apply for MGSA membership and take advantage of the reduced registration fee for the symposium. (see reverse side)

2:00 p.m. The Foreign Factor
Ward I Chair: Nikiforos P. Diamanduros, Athens
College

Van Coufoudakis, Indiana University at Fort Wayne
The Greek Civil War and the United Nations
Lawrence S. Wittner, SUNY, Albany
American Policy Toward Greece, 1944-49
Adamantia Pollis, New School for Social Research
The United States and Greek Trade Unions

2:00 p.m. Literature: Prose
Ward II Chair: Kostas Kazazis, University of Chicago

Apostolos Sahinis, University of Thessaloniki
Prose Literature in the Forties
Thomas Doulis, Portland State University
The 'Reds' and the 'Blacks': Fiction of the Civil War
Peter Bien, Dartmouth College
1940 as a Turning Point in Kazantzakis' Career

7:30-9:00 p.m. Reception at Greek Embassy

Sunday, November 12

10:00 a.m. Meaning and Impact of the Decade:
Ward I Round Table
Chair: John Petropoulos, Amherst College

John O. Iatrides, Southern Connecticut State College
Edmund Keeley, Princeton University
William H. McNeill, University of Chicago
George P. Savides, Harvard University and University of Thessaloniki
Nicos Svoronos, École Pratique des Hautes Études
C. M. Woodhouse

12:30 p.m. Closing Comments
Ward I Lily Macrakis, President MGSA

The Modern Greek Studies Association

The Modern Greek Studies Association is a non-profit organization of scholars, students, and philhellenes founded in 1968 to promote the study of modern Greece. MGSA sponsors symposia and seminars devoted to a variety of topics: language, literature, history, the social sciences, education, and the fine arts. The Association also issues and supports publications and serves as an information center on programs and activities relating to Byzantine and Modern Greek studies.

The Center for Mediterranean Studies

The Center for Mediterranean Studies was established in 1972 as a non-profit institution. The purpose of the Center is to encourage and coordinate scholarly and interdisciplinary research, particularly comparative studies of the Mediterranean area. The Center's location at The American University in Washington, D.C. makes it an important forum for the exchange of views among representatives of the academic world, the government, and the media. CMS operates five country seminars, including a Greek seminar.

Symposium '78 Program Committee

Co-chairmen: Anne Farmakides, McGill University;
A. A. Fatouros, Indiana University at Bloomington
Committee: Peter Allen, Theodore A. Couloumbis,
Nikiforos P. Diamandouros, John O. Iatrides, Edmund
Keeley, Lily Macrakis, Lelia Washburn

Local Arrangements Committee

Co-chairmen: Theodore A. Couloumbis, The American University; Sallie M. Hicks, The American University
Committee: Elojse Forgette, Candee Harris, Roxanne
Kariotis, Anna Lea, Susan Loutzker, Ernest Plock, Rena
Stavrou, Lelia Washburn

The local committee would like to thank the staff of the Press and Information Office, Greek Embassy, Washington, D.C. for their cooperation.

GREECE IN THE 1940s: Symposium '78

The following additions and changes have been made since the program was printed:

Additions:

- Th.D. Frangopoulos (Friday, 10:00 am, Ward II)
- "The Poetry of Anti-Defeat"
- Heinz Richter (Friday, 8:00 pm, Ward I)
- "Origins of the Greek Civil War"
- Vassilis Vassilikos (Saturday, 2:00 pm, Ward II)
- "The Myth of the Greek Reality"

Title Changes:

- Nicos Svoronos (Thursday, 8:00 pm, Ward I)
- "The Problematique of Greek History in the Period 1940-1950"
- George J. Lekas (Friday, 8:00 pm, Ward II)
- "Memoirs of Resistance in Athens"
- Apostolos Sahinis (Saturday, 2:00 pm, Ward II)
- "Modern Greek Fiction in the 1940s"
- Peter Bien (Saturday, 2:00 pm, Ward II)
- "Nationalism versus Patriotism in Kazantzakis' 'Occupation Novel', Zorba the Greek"